

A.D. JOHLEA, FLORENCE

Far enough from the city centre to offer a neighbourhood feel, but still only a 15-minute stroll to the Uffizi Gallery. This residence, on the third floor of a quiet residential block, has six bedrooms, all with air-con and four-posters with books of love poems beside them.

Bonus: Enjoy breakfast on the terrace and gaze over the rooftops to the Duomo.

Drawback: Anyone wanting a lie-in should steer clear of rooms overlooking Via San Gallo.

Book it: 00 39 055 463 3292, www.johanna.it.
Doubles from £105, including breakfast.
